LAMINATES

A stylish alternative to the profiles on regular windows, laminates are the ideal fix for your windows if you want them to shine. They have properties which make them endure for a long period of time in any natural environment. It comes in all colours, textures, and sizes - customisable for your vision. A laminate is for a lifetime; with a bit of maintenance, they will stay with you forever.

Renowned worldwide for their technical excellence, they are an organisation that has consistently produced high-quality products from their factories. Made with faultless raw materials, their final laminates are a work of art and come in a spectrum of colours. ISO certified and sustainable, their motto pretty much sums them up: "rely on it".

WALNUT

Rugged and bare, walnut brings the lines of nature closer to home. Standing out with an array of lines of different breadth running ceaselessly, walnut can cater to a range of design tropes and is a perfect companion to an object that wants to stand apart.

MAHOGANY

A deep shade of the original colour, our mahogany is a colour and an emotion. Authentic in appearance, it's a flawless imitation of the browner shade. The many parallel darker and lighter gradients, as well as the speckles, conjures up a sense of comfort.

ANTHRECITE GREY

One of the greyest on the palette, anthracite grey works as a metallic finish that gives the parent object a rough look. Its uniform greyness makes it stern and an ideal finish for a modern or minimalist structure.

GOLDEN OAK

These oak finishes shimmer out from the rest and elevate the ambience into something regal. Authentic in texture and resemblance to an oak, these are coated with many complex subtleties and a radiant yellow/brown colour.

DARK OAK

The quintessential colour of the woods, dark oak is the epitome of a colour that can bewitch an audience. With darker gradients and a mostly earthy brown tone, it's a colour that is as versatile to seamlessly become part of a modern piece or a rustic one.

FX BLACK

This perennial colour is perfect for any occasion. FX black is the epitome of dark and handsome, its sheer smoothness and powerful black tone makes it an ideal frame. Apart from this aesthetic prowess, it's highly durable as well.

Silver Brush Effect (Metallic)

This elegant colour is all about the tone and feel. It's natural sheen and smooth sensation causes it to be a favourite among many prospective designers. The hues of calmness and serenity it seamlessly projects have made an impression on many.

Captiv Fenestration in India
RENOLIT EXOFOL FX SOLID
RENOLIT EXOFOL FX PRINTED

RENOLIT SE warrants that the above mentioned films for the lamination of substrates for interior and exterior use in vertical assembly of components are manufactured according to the requirements of the worldwide leading and accepted standard RAL-GZ 716 (plastic window profiles, quality assurance, RAL-GZ 716), in the edition of May 2013. This includes all the important specified processing properties, for example:

- Colour fastness and the absence of stains, blisters, streaks, cracks as well as peeling. No delamination or other substantial degradation of the visual appearance, caused by exposure to natural weathering and sunlight.
- Chemical resistance to all organic solvent-free and non-abrasive household cleansing agents e.g. water, aliphatic benzene and light alcohol/water solutions.
- Excellent mechanical properties (abrasion resistance, scratch resistance)

The requirements of the Product Performance Warranty are fulfilled if the discolouration will be maximal grey scale 2 (ISO 105 - A02) within 20 years * of service. This value can be warranted as long as the film is processed according to the requirements of the RAL-GZ 716 and the discolouration occurs due to natural weathering.

* only for selected colours/designs up to 20 years. Details are available on request.
